

C

G

O Lord, You are the gentle One.

F C G

To You hearts open wide.

C G

Your living water gently flows

F C G C

To heal and satisfy.

F

G

When all I see is outward sin,

F Dm G

You see the thirst within.

F G

If I must speak to hearts in need,

Am G F

Lord, gently flow through me.

When I failed You so miserably,
You never scolded me.

Restoring me so patiently,
You gently watered me.

How could I still self-righteous be,
Despite my history?

How could I without mercy be,
When You've forgiven me.

O Lord, You are the gentle One.
To You hearts open wide.

Your living water gently flows
To heal and satisfy.